Surfing Bali and a Medewi local, will accompany you all day. He's an experienced surf teacher, guide and coach and will make sure you have a great day.

Medewi is a small remote village in a quiet non-touristy area of Bali. It has become famous for having an amazing wave - the longest left hander in Bali! The locals there are very friendly, open minded and welcoming to tourists.

The famous Medewi wave is an easy-going, light-lipped left hander point break, that rolls down over smooth stones, shells and sand. It is a great spot for surfers of all levels, as there is heaps of space on the inside to practice your take off, steering and turning. Intermediate and advanced surfers love it too because there are rides of over 1 minute from the outside to the inside!

Depending on the conditions it might happen that we move to Sumbul beach break or another secret spot we don't want to mention here ;)

As Medewi is best when it is high tide, those trips have to be planned a little bit in advance to get the best out of this trip. We will not run it when low tide is in the morning as we cannot guarantee a good wave quality.
